Re: SPECIAL BULLETIN: Confessions Tonight in Egan Hall

Peace and Blessings!

I have good news! Bishop Jeffrey Monforton modified yesterday's instructions and will now allow confessions to be held as long as proper social distancing is maintained. So we can follow that directive, the friars will hear confessions for the Franciscan University community in Egan Hall (First Floor) tonight, March 17, starting at 7:00 p.m.

We will continue to stream our 12:05 p.m. EDT, daily Mass from the University at facebook.com/franciscanuniversity for those interested in participating virtually in this. In addition, we will stream our Saturday Mass at 12:05 p.m. and Sunday Mass at 12:05 p.m.

I encourage you to read this excellent article, "Praying Through Mass-less Sundays," by Dr. Mark Miravalle for ideas on how to remain close to Our Lord and Our Lady while unable to attend Mass.

We also plan to stream a Holy Hour later this week, also at facebook.com/franciscanuniversity. Details to come.

Our campus chapels will remain open for prayer during their regularly scheduled hours for those who desire to use them for personal prayer.

Please know of my ongoing prayers for all of you. God is with us! Be at peace!

President, Franciscan University
