Join Worldwide Rosary Today at 4:00 p.m.

Pope Francis has urged every member of the faithful to pray the Luminous Mysteries of the Rosary today at 4:00 p.m. (1:00 p.m. Los Angeles; 9 p.m. Rome). Let's respond to our Holy Father's call by gathering in our offices, departments, and families to pray the Rosary together on this Solemnity of St. Joseph.

—Father Dave, TOR

Pope Francis

Every family, every member of the faithful, every religious community: All of us spiritually united tomorrow (Thursday) at 9 pm in praying the Rosary, the Luminous Mysteries.

Mary — Mother of God, and Health of the Sick, to whom we direct the Rosary, under the loving gaze of St. Joseph, Protector of the Holy Family, and our families — brings us to the luminous and transfigured Face of Christ and his Heart.

And we ask that he especially protect our families, in particular the sick and those who care for them: doctors, nurses, and volunteers, who risk their lives in this service.
